Open-Ended Questions

The survey also had four open-ended questions. We're thankful for the thoughtful insight you shared. As we continue to reflect on the many responses, these are the primary themes that emerged:

- Mission, vision & future direction of the church
- New Elder leadership structure and leadership health
- High value on Sunday worship services and preaching
- Questions regarding specific Chapel ministries
- Hunger for discipleship and evangelism opportunities and training
- Tim's continued development and growth as our Lead Pastor
- Long-term plans for our building, budget and attendance
- Expression of gratitude and a desire to pray and care well for our staff and Elders

Thank you to everyone who took the time to complete this survey. Your input is important to us. We are continuing to review the data and will keep you posted on action steps planned as a result of your feedback.
